City of Wheeling:

GENTLEMEN—I wish to present the city with a fountain, and pray the permission of your honorable body to locate the same at the west front of the Capitol suiding. This space heretofore had been granted for the Soldiers' Monument, but being the most, if not only, appropriate place for a fountain, the Commissioners' have kindly consented to relinquish it, I am informed, and will locate their monument at one of the other fronts. The monument is already ordered, and its construction is progressing, and it is important that work upon the basin should begin at once in order that the entire structure may be complete and in place this Fall. The next witness called was Christian Lotz, who testified that on one occasion he heard Kreusch, in conversation with several others, state that the plaintiff was a bad man, a man who had escaped from the Penitentiary. On cross examination witness testified that he was not on good terms with the defendant.

Of course the above is a very brief outline of the testimony, many minor things being introduced which time and space prevent us from publishing. The defendant, in his plea, denies the slanderous conversation above noted, which he claims he will prove when his side of the case is heard. The case is causing a great deal of excitement in the community, the Court room at all times being filled with large numbers of spectators. There was no room at all times being filled with large numbers of spectators. There was no afternoon session of Court, owing to the absence of Mr. Stifel, one of plaintiff's counsel, who was compelled to absent himself by reason of a serious accident to his brother, which is noted elsewhere in our local columns.
